

5th Annual Texas Primary Care and Health Home Summit
May 11 - 12, 2017
Sheraton Gunter Hotel, Downtown San Antonio

Draft Agenda

Time:	Session:	Objective:	Speaker(s):	Meeting Room:
Thursday, 5/11
7:00AM-7:45AM	Breakfast with Faculty
8:30AM -11:30AM	Pre-Summit Sessions (additional fee)
	Health Home 101	Introduce attendees to the elements necessary for successful practice transformation.	Elaine Skoch, RN, MN
	Best Practices for Integrating Behavioral Health into Primary Care	Attendees will learn the rationale for integrating behavioral health services into the primary care practices and receive information on practices that have successfully integrated.	Ken Minkoff, MD
	Quality Improvement: A How-to Guide		TBD
12:00PM-1:30PM	Luncheon Keynote: Leveraging the Patient-Centered Medical Home and Other New Models of Care	Participants will learn the benefits of becoming a patient-centered medical home and how they can leverage being PCMH to improve their practices.	Christopher Crow, MD Melissa Gerdes, MD Esteban Lopez , MD (invited)
1:45PM-2:45PM	Breakout Sessions I
	Practice Wisely and Save 2 Hours a Day	Participants will gain skills that will enable them to be more efficient in organizing their work flow to spend more time with patient care.	Marie Brown, MD
	Motivational Interviewing: Practical Advice for Positive Behavior Change*	Participants will learn the theory of motivational interviewing and have hands-on experience in using MI techniques.	Beth Garland, PhD
	Update on STAR Kids: The Texas Medicaid Plan for	Attendees will learn about the rollout of STAR Kids (Medicaid	Fred McCurdy, MD Angela Moemeka, MD

	Children with Special Healthcare Needs	managed care for children with special healthcare needs) and	Brendle Glomb, MD (invited) Moderator:
	Brief Action Planning: Tools for Increasing Patient Engagement	Participants will learn techniques that help practitioners improve people's likelihood of making a change in their lives.	Elaine Skoch, RN, MN
	The Journey to PCMH: An Internal Medicine Practice's Experiences	Attendees will learn about the process undertaken by an internal medicine practice to become a PCMH along with lessons learned.	J. Shaun Murphy, MD
2:45PM-3:00PM	Break
3:00PM-4:00PM	Breakout Sessions II
	Motivational Interviewing: Practice Advice for Positive Behavior Change	Participants will learn the theory of motivational interviewing and have hands-on experience in using MI techniques.	Beth Garland, PhD
	NCQA PCMH Recognition Redesign Overview	Participants will understand the NCQA's PCMH recognition program and learn about the changes to the program designed to make it more accessible.	Michael S. Barr, MD, MACP
	Successful Strategies for Practice Transformation	Attendees will learn about successful approaches to practice transformation utilized by a variety of primary care practices.	Russell Kohl, MD
	Update on Quality Payment Program (MACRA and MIPPS)	Participants will receive an update on the status and final rules for HHS's new quality payment programs.	Christina Perez, MHA
4:30PM-6:00PM	Reception with Sponsors and Exhibitors
Friday, 5/12
7:00AM-7:45AM	Breakfast with Faculty
8:00AM-9:00AM	Plenary Presentation: The Patient-Centered Medical Home at 10: Looking Forward to the Next Chapter	Participants will understand the development of the patient-centered medical home and will learn about the future opportunities and challenges to the model.	Carlos Jaen, MD
9:15AM-10:15AM	Breakout Sessions III

	Implementing the Team-Based Model in Primary Care	Attendees will learn practical methods to implement team based care including financial modeling for team-based care.	Wendy Bradley
	Integrating Behavioral Health into Primary Care	Participants will learn about effective tools to screen patients for behavioral health issues and successful methods for follow up management.	Jeff Bullard, MD
	Using Data to Improve Patient Care and Outcomes	Attendees will learn how to use patient data to improve patient outcomes.	Sue Pickens
	Using Telehealth to Improve Outcomes in Chronic Disease: Project ECHO	Participants will learn about the use of telehealth to improve outcomes in chronic diseases with a focus on Hepatitis C.	Saira Khaderi, MD Lizette Escamilla, MPH
10:15AM-10:30AM	Break
10:30AM-11:30AM	Breakout Sessions IV
	Implementing the PCMH Model in Multiple Clinics	Participants will learn how a health system successfully implemented the PCMH model in multiple primary care practices.	Julia Andrieni, MD
	Risk Management: The Challenges of Complex Health and Social Needs Patients	Participants will learn methods to redesign care processes for managing the risk of patients with complex needs.	Christie Lawrence, MS
	Care Coordination in Pediatric Practices: Overview; Measuring Value and Implementation	Participants will learn about how care coordination can be implemented in pediatrics practices and will also learn about the value of care coordination.	Carl Tapia, MD
	The PCMH “Poster Boy”: One Clinic and One Family’s PCMH Journey	Attendees will learn how a clinic that transformed to a PCMH helped a man and his family regain their	James L. “Larry” Holly, MD
	Reflections on Becoming and Sustaining a Medical Home	Participants will learn about the process of becoming a PCMH from one of the physicians in one longest-standing PCMH s in Texas.	Janet Hurley, MD
11:45AM-1:00PM	Closing Plenary and Luncheon	Attendees will learn how the Arkansas Medicaid Program has	William Golden, MD

	Arkansas Medicaid's PCMH Experience and Lessons Learned from the Comprehensive Primary Care Initiative	been effective in improving the quality of care delivered to its beneficiaries through collaboration and ongoing support of practices.
--	---	--	--	--

DRAFT